Frederick County, Md. Committee of Citizens.

Circular. Frederick-Town, Sept. 23, 1802. Sir: We being appointed a Committee to communicate with our Fellow-Citizens of Frederick County, beg leave to call your attention to the Election on the first Monday of October next, for four Delegates to represent the people of this County in the next General Assembly. [84 lines] We have the Honor to be, Sir, your Fellow-Citizens [31 signers] [Frederick-Town, 1802] broadside 41 x 25.5 cm. Without imprint.

The circular refers to an "anonymous handbill" circulated throughout the county, charging the Republican candidates with want of official integrity.
