

Advertised in the Baltimore Federal Gazette, Aug. 8, 1803, as "Just Published, And now selling."

IMunS; MdHi.

[212]

Paine versus Religion; or, Christianity Triumphant. Containing the interesting Letters of Sam. Adams, Tho. Paine and John Gemmil. To which is added, Mr. Erskine's Celebrated Speech at the Trial of the Age of Reason.

[rule] [cut] [rule] [2 lines, quotation] [double rule] Baltimore: Published by G. Douglas, Bookseller. [rule] 1803.

16 p. 21 cm. A-B⁴.

MSaE.

[213]

Poems of established Reputation, to wit: 1st. The Art of preserving Health, by J. Armstrong, M.D. 2d. The Minstrel, or Progress of Genius, by James Beattie, LL.D. 3d. The Pleasures of Imagination, by Dr. Akenside. 4th. The Task, by Wm. Cowper, Esq. [thick-thin rule] Baltimore: Printed and Sold by Warner & Hanna. [short rule] 1803.

288 p. 16 cm. A-2A⁶.

CSmH; Ct; MNBedf; MWA; M1D-B; PU; V1.

[214]

Protestant Episcopal Church of the U. S. A. Maryland (Diocese)

Journal of a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Maryland; held in the City of Baltimore, from June 1st. to June 3d. 1803. [thick-thin rule] Baltimore: Printed by Sower & Cole, No. 190, Market-street, 1803.

20 p. 21 cm. [A]-B⁴ C².

DLC; MBD; MdBD; MdBE (lacks t.p. and final leaf); MdBP.

[215]

Public Characters, or Cotemporary [sic] Biography. [filet] Memoirs of the following personages are given in this work. [36 names listed] [filet] [5 lines, quotation] [thin-thick rule] Baltimore: Printed by Bonsal and Niles, for selves; John Conrad and Co. Mathew Carey, and Samuel F. Bradford, Philadelphia, and Samuel Campbell, New-York. [row of dots] 1803.

viii, 496 p. 22 cm. [a]⁴ A-3 O⁴ (includes sig. W).

A selection from the first four volumes of the London edition.

Sabin 66511.