

rules, [row of printing ornaments,] Baltimore:—Printed by Thomas & George Dobbin, at the Telegraphe Printing-Office, No. 6 Market St. where all kinds of Marine, Commercial and Law Blanks may be had. [1804?]

On verso: Seamen's Articles form, dated Nov. 15, 1808, in manuscript. T. & G. Dobbin were listed in the 1804 directory at 6 Market St.; in the 1803 directory they had been at 36 Market St.

MdH1.

[307]

U. S. President (Jefferson)

A topographical and statistical Account of the Province of Louisiana. Containing a Description of its Soil, Climate, Trade and Produce, its Divisions, Rivers, Lakes, Cities, Towns, Laws, Customs, Habits and Manners; civil, commercial, political, and ecclesiastical Establishments, Numbers and Pursuits of its Inhabitants, together with new and interesting Particulars, relative to numerous Indian Tribes, to which is annexed, an Introduction. Containing the Act of Congress, erecting Louisiana into two Territories, and providing for its temporary Government. Also an Appendix, containing the recent Conventions, between the United States and the French Republic. The third Edition. Baltimore: Printed for John Rice, No. 182 Market, corner of Charles Street. By Martin & Pratt. 1804.

xiv, [12]-83 p. 16 cm.

PPM (not found).

[308]

U. S. Treasury Dept.

[The Rates of Duties payable on goods, wares and merchandise, imported into the United States from and after the 30th June, 1804, with other commercial information. Baltimore, Warner & Hanna, 1804]

Advertised in the Baltimore American, Aug. 2, 1804, as "Just Published By Warner & Hanna, Price 25 Cents."

PH1 has an item with a similar title, with imprint Philadelphia, 1804.

No copy known.

[309]

The Universal Dream-Book, or Interpreter of Dreams and Visions. Shewing The Nature, Causes and Uses of various Kinds of Dreams and Representations. In VIII Chapters. Containing Narratives of Apparitions & remarkable Providences from Scripture and History. Ac-