Bower, George.

A Discourse, delivered in Hagers-Town, Maryland, on the Anniversary of St. John the Baptist, June 24th, 1805, to the Brethren of Mount Moriah Lodge, No. 33, and such of their visiting Brethren as attended for that purpose. [thick-thin rule] By the Rev. George Bower, D.D. [thin-thick rule] Published at the special request of the Lodge. [rule] [2 lines, quotation] [rule] Hagers-Town: Published by Jacob D. Dietrick. John Gruber, Printer. [1805]

16 p. 16.5 cm. [A]<sup>2</sup> B<sup>6</sup>.

Advertised in the Frederick Republican Advocate Sept. 6, 1805, as "Just received from Hagerstown, and for Sale at this Office." In the Frederick Hornet (Aug. 27, 1805) and the Frederick Herald (Aug. 31, 1805) appeared almost identical advertisements of this item, with the phrase "Just Published and for sale at this Office." Possibly another edition of this item was published in Frederick, but it seem likely that the insertion in the Republican Advocate is simply more accurate.
