MR. DONALD MCGARROW . . . . . General Archival Assistant

January 1, 1936

MISS REBECCA DOBBIN . . . . . Manuscript Repairer

MRS. JOSEPHINE JICKLING . . . . . General Archival Assistant

The original Maintenance staff consisted of the following:

J. PARKER LUCKETT . . . . . Watchman

BENJAMIN BROWN . . . . . Watchman

CHARLES MCNAMARA . . . . . Janitor

MARTHA SCISCO . . . . . Charwoman

PERDELLA BROWN . . . . . Charwoman

During the first year Mr. McNamara died and was succeeded by Mr. William M. Cox. No further changes in the staff are noted until the middle of the second fiscal year. Mr. McGarrow resigned effective June 15, 1937, and on August 1 following Mr. Gust Skordas was appointed to the vacant position. During the same year two volunteer workers, Mrs. Jane R. Moss and Mrs. Ruth A. Krebs, assisted in the repair room. During the prolonged illness of Miss Dobbin they became part-time workers. Mr. Lockett died during this year and was succeeded on January 20 by Mr. Albert Graf.

During the third fiscal year Mrs. Krebs was appointed full-time Repair Worker to succeed Miss Dobbin, who had resigned, and Mrs. Moss was continued as a part-time worker in the same department; Miss Frances Hamilton Krebs was given a temporary appointment in the repair room during the course of the year. Another part-time worker, Miss Teresa C. Florestano, was employed during the year in the research room as a typist. It was during the fourth fiscal year that Dr. Robertson died. He was succeeded June 16 by the writer. No further changes were made until the end of the fourth fiscal year when Mrs. Moss became a full-time employee as did Miss Florestano. Miss Krebs resigned from the staff at this time. At the beginning of the fifth fiscal year the members of the professional staff and their titles were as follows:

Archivist . . . . . MORRIS L. RADOFF
 Secretary . . . . . JOAN KNIGHT
 Assistant Archivist . . . . . ELIZABETH W. MEADE
