

these records on call. It was decided, therefore, to arrange them on the basis of convenience only, and a careful account was kept, therefore, of the kinds of records used in order to serve as guide for this rearrangement. The following table lists the records most often called for in the Research Room and the circulation record of each:

Wills.	1,106
Accounts.	760
Inventories.	523
Testamentary Proceedings	515
Deeds, Baltimore County.	451
Inventories and Accounts.	249
Deeds, Anne Arundel County.	147
Provincial Court Judgments.	143
Balance Books	103
Wills, Anne Arundel County.	72
Deeds, Prince George's County.	63
Court Records, Prince George's County.	55
Wills, Original	55
Accounts, Anne Arundel County.	44
Court Minutes, Frederick County.	44
Inventories, Anne Arundel County.	36
Judgments, Frederick County.	33
Marriage Records, Anne Arundel County.	32
Wills, Original, Anne Arundel County.	29

The following is a similar list for the circulation of materials on the second floor:

Adjutant-General records	84
Court of Appeals records.	34
Revolutionary Records	29
D. A. R. Records.	27
Rainbow Series	25
Federation of Women's Clubs.	23
Frederick County Records.	21
Executive Papers	15
Evening Capital	13
Archives.	12

The largest number of researchers who came to the Hall of Records were from Maryland, the number was 690. Following in order came the District of Columbia with 97, Pennsylvania with 39, New York with 32, and Virginia with 31. Altogether searchers came from thirty-two States, the District of Columbia, Hawaii,