

lected by the late George Forbes were presented to the Hall of Records by Mrs. Forbes. There was received also a very curious collection of letters written to an Irish newspaper by an Irish Revolutionary from Washington during the Civil War years. Purchases included a collection of 61 maps of Maryland and the Chesapeake Bay Country. It is our hope that this purchase will form a nucleus for a useful map collection heretofore lacking at the Hall of Records. The following materials were received in the course of the year:
