

sample questionnaire for a register of public officers was accepted. Finally, the Archivist was instructed to discuss with the Council of the Maryland Historical Society the question of the feasibility of dividing our fields of acquisitions so that we should not find ourselves competing with each other.