ACCESSIONS FROM PUBLIC SOURCES

The past year marked the first full year of the operation of Chapter 248 of the Acts of 1945 which directed public officials to transfer all records in their custody dating before April 28, 1788 to the Hall of Records Commission. Records were brought in from several counties and the preliminary arrangements for transfers from other counties were completed. The results achieved may be largely attributed to the effect of the law. In every case, however, we were able to persuade the custodian that removal to Annapolis would be of ultimate benefit to the records, as well as providing more filing
