

which is to take effect on September 1. When it is considered that our total professional staff consists of nine persons it will be readily understood how serious these losses are. Finally I should like to recommend to you the loyal services of Mrs. Jane Moss and Mr. Gust Skordas, who came to the Hall of Records in 1937, and Mr. Roger Thomas and Mrs. Margaret White who were employed in 1942. They are the veterans upon whose collaboration the Archivist must rely more and more, in spite of the fact that they too are underpaid.

Respectfully submitted,

MORRIS L. RADOFF,
