

Affairs, Newark, New Jersey; Edgar Langsdorf, Archivist, Kansas Historical Society, Topeka, Kansas; Robert W. Lovett, Assistant in Archives, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts; Isidore S. Meyer, Librarian; American Jewish Historical Society, New York, New York; Elizabeth Reu, Librarian and Archivist, Wartburg Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa; Julia H. Behringer, Filing Supervisor, Long Island, New York; Luta M. Sewell, Records Coordinator, Colonial Williamsburg, Inc., Williamsburg, Virginia; Elizabeth F. Sharp, Files Consultant, Workmen's Compensation Board, New York, New York; Blanche A. Girard, Society of the Cincinnati, Washington, D. C.; William F. Burton, Chief, Division of Archives and Manuscripts, Department of Archives and History, Raleigh, North Carolina.

COURSE IN THE HISTORY OF ANNAPOLIS

At the request of the St. John's College, the Archivist arranged for a course to be given in the history of Annapolis at the Hall of Records. The purpose of this course was to give those residents of this area who might be interested an opportunity to prepare themselves for the Annapolis Tercentenary. The class met weekly from January 31 through May 2. The lectures on political, economic, archival, and governmental history were given by members of the staff of the Hall of Records, two by the Archivist, two by Mr. Skordas, and three by Mr. Thomas. The history of the St. John's College was given by Dr. Ford K. Brown, the history of the United States Naval Academy by Professor E. B. Potter. The Colonial houses were discussed by Mr. Orlando Ridout IV, and "Whitehall" was made the subject of a special lecture offered by Mr. Charles Scarlett, Jr. The religious history of Annapolis was outlined briefly by Mr. John P. Trimmer.

REVIEWS

Mr. Skordas reviewed for The American Archivist (XII, 299) a booklet prepared by the Eastman Kodak Company called Storage of Microfilms, Sheet Films and Prints (Safety Film Base and Paper Base Materials Only). Mr. Thomas reviewed for the same journal (XII, 77) the Annual Report on Historical Collections University of Virginia Library. Sixteenth and Seventeenth for the Years 1945 to 1947. He also reviewed for the Quarterly Booklist of the Library of Congress (V, 290) the new Guide to the Records in the National Archives. The Archivist prepared an article on the care of Maryland Records which was printed in the Rich-