GAME AND INLAND FISH COMMISSION

At the request of the Game and Inland Fish Commission, we examined on September 24, 1948, certain records of the Commission and its predecessor agencies. They were stored in a small room in the basement of the Munsey Building in Baltimore. The room was so crowded that about half of the material could not be seen at all, but it was apparent from what we could see and from what we were told by the Secretary of the Commission that none of it was worthy of preservation at the Hall of Records. The records were refused and on October 19, 1948 we were informed by the Secretary of the Board of Public Works that their destruction had been authorized. We have not yet received a certificate of destruction or list of the records destroyed, although, presumably, the destruction has been effected by now. The list below is admittedly inadequate and was not intended as a final list, but it will at least give some idea as to the nature of the material involved. The dates and the quantities are both estimated.
