

mation by supplying schools, colleges, and other institutions of learning with information concerning the industries, natural resources, agriculture, recreation, government, and history of the State; and to further promote the interest of the State of Maryland and its products in such manner as the Department may deem advisable. In the performance of the duties, the Director shall work in cooperation with State Archivist.

(b) The Director and employees of said Department shall receive such compensation and shall be allowed such monies for performing the functions herein prescribed as is provided in the budget.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1949.

Approved April 29, 1949.