

printed books. This includes at the present time two major projects, the filming of the Annapolis Capital and the missing publications of other state agencies. Moreover, whenever we must send a unique manuscript record book to be bound, we feel that we are obliged to make an insurance microfilm copy if no other copy is in existence. Microfilming of county records is treated in a separate section of this report. A detailed analysis of the work of the photocopying department is given here below:
