REPAIR AND BINDING

In my report for the last fiscal year, I pointed out that as soon as we could begin to do our own binding, the quantity of our repair work would show an abrupt decline. The reason for this is, of course, that one of the two full-time employees of the Repair Room would have to spend much of her time in the bindery. We did not begin to bind as soon as we had hoped, but by the end of the fiscal year we had made some progress, twelve record volumes had been completed. In the meanwhile, the number of pages of materials laminated dropped from our high mark of the year before, 32,348, to 26,552. If our expectations for the bindery are fulfilled, we shall do even less laminating next year.

We continued to work with the county records this year but we were able also to laminate a fine set of records of St. Luke's Parish of Queen Anne's County. These records will remain on deposit at the Hall of Records. We were also able to begin the large collection of Prerogative Court Papers, known as the "Testamentary Papers." This is the last large collection of
