In addition to the reports of established administrative agencies, we have also added materially to our collection of the reports of special commissions and committees created by the Legislature or the Executive to study particular problems. Twenty-five of these were procured from the Department of Legislative Reference and microfilmed. Others were printed in the legislative Journals of either or both houses of the General Assembly. Steps have been taken to locate these reports and to catalogue them with our other reports. During the fiscal year, approximately sixty reports contained in the Senate Journals for 1890-1920 and a few scattered in the House Journals were catalogued in this manner. This catalogue has already revealed reports of which we were previously unaware.

ACCESSIONS

The apparently inexhaustible resources of the county courthouses of Maryland have once again provided us with several items of unusual interest. Among the records transferred from the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court at Cambridge was a small volume containing the proceedings of the commissioners appointed to lay out ports and towns in Dorchester County, as provided by Chapter 14 of the Acts of 1706. Although the volume is entitled "Establishment of Vienna Towne 1706," it also describes the original boundaries of Cambridge and of two other towns, Islington and "Fishing Creek on Hungar River," which no longer exist. A street-by-street survey of the town of Cambridge made in 1799, with the accompanying plat, was another valuable item of this group.

At the request of the Register of Wills of Frederick County, we transferred a large quantity of original papers from his office. They have been filed with similar papers already in our custody. As a result of this deposit, we now have the original wills of Frederick County from 1748 to 1886. The papers for the other probate series cover approximately the same period.
