

HALL OF RECORDS COMMISSION

The Hall of Records Commission is an ex officio body, created by Chapter 18, Acts of 1935, to collect and preserve the non-current records of Maryland and to encourage research and investigation in the history of the State. Since passage of this Act, additional duties have been assigned the Staff of the Hall of Records: it is responsible for compiling and editing the Maryland Manual; it has been made a depository for all State agency publications; it administers the State Records Management Program; it is responsible for the microfilming of all current land records and for providing two copies of the film, a negative for the Land Office and a positive for use by the State Tax Commission in the preparation of tax maps; it is also responsible for microfilming the proceedings of the General Assembly at the end of each legislative day. The work of the Hall of Records Commission is performed at the Hall of Records building in Annapolis. (Flack's Code 1951, Article 41, Sections 121, 148-157; Chapters 436, 437, Acts of 1953.)
