

County on "The Hall of Records and Local Historical Societies - Areas of Contact and of Conflict."

The Assistant Archivist attended the April 30, 1956 meeting of the Historical Committee of Historic Annapolis, Incorporated. The objective of this group is the production of a panoramic map of Old Annapolis.

The Archivist attended the formal opening of the newly-restored John Dickinson Mansion near Dover, Delaware, May 2, 1956; on Sunday, May 6, he toured part of Talbot County. He also participated in the "Old New Castle" tour at New Castle, Delaware, on Saturday, May 21, 1956.

Mr. Skordas and Mr. Wilds attended the conference of the Clerks of Courts of Maryland at City Hall, Baltimore, on May 18, 1956.

PUBLICATIONS

The following articles and reviews were published by members of the Hall of Records staff.

RADOFF, MORRIS L. "What Should Bind us Together." The American Archivist, Vol. XIX, No. 1, pp. 3-9.

———, "Charles Wallace As Undertaker Of The State House." Maryland Historical Magazine, Vol. 51, No. 1, pp. 50-53.

CREECY, JOHN HARVIE, editor. Virginia Antiquary: Volume 1, Princess Anne County Loose Papers, 1700-1789. Richmond, The Dietz Press, 1954. Reviewed by Morris L. Radoff in The American Archivist, Vol. XIX, No. 2, p. 165.

COCKRELL, M. T. The Lost Account of The Battle of Corinth. Jackson, Tennessee, McCowat-Mercer Company, 1955. Reviewed by Roger Thomas in Maryland Historical Magazine, Vol. 50, No. 3, p. 258.

NASH, RAY Printing As An Art. Cambridge, Harvard University Press, 1955. Reviewed by Roger Thomas in United States Quarterly Book Review.

STREETER, THOMAS W. Texas Bibliography, 1795-1845, 2 vols. Cambridge, Harvard University Press, 1955. Reviewed by Roger Thomas in United States Quarterly Book Review.

TROTIER, ARNOLD H. and Harman, Marian, comps. Doctoral Dissertations Accepted by American Universities, No. 20, 1953-1954. New York, Wilson Company, 1955. Reviewed by Roger Thomas in United States Quarterly Book Review.

———, Ibid., No. 21, 1954-1955. New York, Wilson Company, 1956. Reviewed by Roger Thomas in United States Quarterly Book Review.