

can University. The students of the Tenth Annual Institute in The Preservation and Administration of Archives attended classes at the Hall of Records on July 3; the students of the Seventh Annual Institute of Genealogical Research spent the day of July 11, 1956. On May 28, 1957, the winter class in Archival Administration came to the Hall of Records; and the students of the Eleventh Annual Institute in The Preservation and Administration of Archives came here June 27 and 28, 1957.

At the request of the Director of the International Labor Relations Office, St. John's College, the Archivist, on February 21, 1957, spoke to a group of exchange students from Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Honduras and Peru on the history of Maryland; he also gave them a short history of the Hall of Records.

Miss Ray, Junior Archivist in the Records Management Division, completed a semester of graduate study in the administration of archives at The American University; and Mr. Saunders enrolled in courses leading to the Master's degree in the same institution.

Students of archival administration at The American University who came to study at the Hall of Records were the following: Mary W. Avery, Librarian, State College of Washington; A. Jeanette Buhler, Department of the Army; Lila F. Colby, Librarian, Michigan State Library; Henry B. Cox, student; B. R. DeRemer, Archivist, Moody Bible Institute; Oscar Hamilton Harris, District of Columbia Department of Corrections; H. G. Jones, North Carolina State Archivist; Walter L. Jordan, Senior Archivist, Tennessee State Archives; George W. Kahler, Library, U. S. Department of Agriculture; Mary Ellis Kahler, Library of Congress; Karl Karsten, graduate student; Geneva Kebler, Research Assistant, Michigan Historical Commission; O. Roland Lambert, Library of Congress; A. T. Loan, Management Analyst, Department of the Army; Mollie F. F. Lukis, Archivist, State Library, Perth, Western Australia; Gladys K. G. Mackenzie, Library of Congress; Nancy H. Mattila, U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission; Boulton B. Miller, Office of the Secretary of Defense; Marcel Pittet, Wisconsin State Historical Society; Dorothy B. Porter, Librarian, Howard University; Helen D. Reveley, Records Consultant, Remington Rand, Incorporated; Alaine L. Roundtree, Archival Assistant, Office of the Secretary of State of Illinois; Francis J. Russo, U. S. Government; Kate M. Stewart, Library of Congress; Ramon Sto. Domingo, Office of the President of the Philippines; Horacio Torres Pierliussu, Puerto Rico Institute of Culture; Clifford F. Valentine, National Headquarters Archivist, American Red Cross; Paul J. Walsh, Department of the Navy; George L. Welsch, Management Analyst, U.S. Government; William H. Work, Archivist, Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission; Hannah M. Zeidlik, Office of Chief of Military History, Department of the Army.