

September 27, 1957, our Public Records Examiner, Mr. Saunders, accompanied by Mr. George Warren, Assistant Archivist of Colorado, visited the Delaware Hall of Records, where Mr. deValinger arranged for them to tour the Hall of Records building and the State Museum.

The Archivist became a member of The Society of Architectural Historians in November 1957.

The Assistant Records Administrator visited the United States General Services Administration Records Center at Alexandria, Virginia, December 10, 1957.

On January 14, 1958, the Archivist and the Assistant Records Administrator attended the first meeting of the Civil War Centennial Commission at the Department of The Interior in Washington.

On March 7 and 8, 1958, the Archivist, accompanied by the Public Records Examiner, visited the Archives, the Hall of History, and the North Carolina Records Center at Raleigh, and the Southern Historical Collection and University of North Carolina Library, at Chapel Hill. The Archivist also conferred, March 9, with Professor William S. Jenkins, Director of the Public Records Collection and Research Bureau of The University of North Carolina.

The Assistant Archivist addressed a luncheon meeting of the "Wednesday Club" of Baltimore on the activities of the Hall of Records, April 16, 1958.

On May 28, 1958, Mr. Weatherly attended a meeting of the Reference Service Division of the American Library Association at Towson State Teachers College.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

Mr. Weatherly attended the Eighth Annual Institute of Genealogical Research, sponsored by The American University, The National Archives and the Maryland Hall of Records which was held July 15-August 10, 1957. As a part of his course, he visited The Library of Congress, The Friends' Library at Swarthmore, the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, the Virginia Historical Society and the Library of The College of William and Mary.

Mr. Saunders took an evening course (February-June, 1958) in automatic data processing systems at The American University in Washington.

In fiscal year 1958, the Archivist lectured to three classes of The American University. Thirty-one students of the Eighth Annual Institute of Genealogical Research spent the day of July 17, 1957. The class roll follows: Hazel M. Amos, Mary G. Ainsworth, Margaret T. Baker, Agnes M. Balshaw, Helen D. Bates, Hilda E. Bloom, Mary G. Bloom, Helen Boswell, Mary W. Cochran, Jessie F. DeShong, Josephine S. Earnest, Archie H. Eldrige, Pauline