

The Annapolis Roundtable Conference on Historic Preservation in Modern City Planning, sponsored by Historic Annapolis, Inc., The Washington Center for Metropolitan Studies and The National Trust for Historic Preservation, was held June 24-25, 1960, in Annapolis. The sessions were attended by the Archivist, the Assistant Archivist, Mr. Weatherly, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Jacobsen.

RELATED ORGANIZATIONS

On November 18, 1959, Mr. White attended a meeting at the Enoch Pratt Free Library of a special State Documents Committee, appointed by the Maryland Library Association to study problems and procedures of distribution.

MISCELLANEOUS

Mr. Saunders attended a special presentation in Washington of business machines and records systems by the Office Equipment Manufacturers Institute, September 25, 1959.

TEACHING AND LEARNING

In fiscal year 1960, the Archivist lectured to three classes of The American University. Twenty-two class members of the Ninth Annual Institute of Genealogical Research spent July 22, 1959, at the Hall of Records.

The winter class in Preservation and Administration of Archives came to the Hall of Records on May 31, 1960, for instruction on the operation of state archives.

On June 17, 1960, the following students of the Fourteenth Annual Institute in Preservation and Administration of Archives attended classes at the Hall of Records: E. J. Alagoa, Archivist of Nigeria; Yahya A. Al-Bahri, Assistant to the Finance Administrator of Iraq; Helen P. Alleman, Librarian, Washington, New Jersey; Adaline R. Beeson, Records Analyst, Board of Governors of The Federal Reserve System; John C. Boles, Records Officer, Detroit Arsenal, U. S. Army Ordnance Corps; Vincent J. Bosak, Records Analyst in the Federal Government; Clyde M. Collier, Supervising Archivist, National Weather Records Center, Asheville; Frank B. Evans, Archivist II, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; Carmita A. Gallegos, National Planning Board, Ecuador; Bruce C. Harding, Archivist, Ohio Historical Society;