

Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union and now engaged in studying Samuel Chase; Vaughan Brown, Annapolis, engaged in a study of colonial shipping; Julian P. Boyd, Professor of History, Princeton University, and Editor of the Jefferson Papers; A. Thomas Bradbury, Architect of Atlanta, now completing plans for the new Georgia Archives; Mary G. Bryan, Archivist of Georgia; Delegate James Clark, Jr., Howard County; Lewis F. Coffin, Clerk, Third Haven Friends Meeting, Easton, Maryland; Doris E. Cook, Archivist at the Connecticut State Library; Delegate Edna P. Cook, Montgomery County; Leon de Valinger, Archivist of Delaware; Caleb Dorsey, who is preparing a tract map of Howard County; Rhoda M. Dorsey, Assistant Professor of History, Goucher College, and her class of history majors; Reverend Leslie F. Fairfield, Assistant Rector, St. Anne's Parish, Annapolis; Isaac M. Fein, Curator, Jewish Historical Society of Maryland, Baltimore; Charles E. Fenwick, President, St. Mary's County Historical Society; Sister Fiske and Sister Victoria of St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore.

Others were: Wayne C. Grover, Archivist of the United States; Reverend L. Wade Hampton, Rector, St. John's Parish, Hagerstown; Oliver W. Holmes, Chief Archivist, Social and Economic Records Division, the National Archives; Marvin E. Harvey, Professor at the School of Mines of the University of South Dakota, who is studying early Methodism in Maryland; John M. Hemphill II, Professor of History at Southwestern University, Memphis, Tennessee; Henry Powell Hopkins, Architect for the restoration of the Old Treasury Building; Reverend Edwin J. Horney, Minister, Unity Methodist Church, Hurlock, Maryland; Bryden B. Hyde, Architect and Historian, Gibson Island; Mrs. John H. Jeffries, Somerset County Historical Society; G. Bucher John, Clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll County; M. G. Kammen, student of the Revolution of 1689, Cambridge, Massachusetts; J. Reaney Kelly, authority on Quaker history, Annapolis; Robert A. Kerr, Director, Historic Annapolis, Incorporated; David A. Kimball, historian for the preservation of Independence Hall, Philadelphia; Harry W. Kirwin, Chairman, Department of History and Social Sciences, Loyola College, and biographer of Governor Herbert R. O'Connor, Baltimore; Lester S. Levy, distinguished collector of Civil War sheet music; Helen Liebel, Brooklyn College, authority on commercial seaports; Mrs. Lewis W. Long, Somerset County Historical Society; John T. Luzader, National Park Service, expert on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.