ARCHIVAL AND MANUSCRIPT ACCESSIONS

Continuing the trend of recent years, a large percentage of the archival records accessioned during the past year were on microfilm. The principal factor in this trend has been our county land records project, which last year alone brought us 1,661 volumes. Among the land records filmed in Cecil County were five volumes of Charlestown Deeds, which record conveyances of lots dating back to 1742 when the town was established by an act of assembly. We also received film copies of 163 volumes of equity records of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel County that were filmed for security purposes and placed in our care.

Original records received include the first installment of the official papers of Governor J. Millard Tawes, covering the biennium
