

Hale, Jr., Archivist of Massachusetts; Loring E. Hawes, Assistant Attorney General of Maryland; Mrs. Truman E. Henton, Historian of Prince George's County; Mrs. Richard P. Hilder, Cambridge, Maryland; Admiral Harry Hill (USN Ret.), Historian of Maryland Silver; Bryden B. Hyde, Architect-Historian, Gibson Island, Maryland; Shigen Ieuta, Researcher, Center for East Asian Cultural Studies, Oriental Library, Tokyo, Japan; Augustine D. Jallah, Acting Director, Central National Archives & Bureau of Patents, Trademarks and Incorporation, Department of State, Monrovia, Liberia; H. G. Jones, State Archivist, Department of Archives and History, Raleigh, North Carolina; Herman Kahn, Assistant Archivist for Civil Archives, National Archives, Washington, D.C.; J. Reaney Kelly, Quaker Historian, Annapolis, Maryland; Robert J. Kerr, II, Director of Historic Annapolis; Aubrey C. Land, Head, History Department, University of Maryland; Edward McM. Larrobee, Archaeologist, Fort Louisburg Restoration, Nova Scotia; John T. Latham, Annapolis; E. John Long, feature writer The Carpenter Magazine, New York, New York; William B. Marye, Genealogist, Baltimore, Maryland; Bernard J. Medairy, Member, House of Delegates, Baltimore County; James A. McAllister, Historian of Dorchester County.

Mrs. John O. McNelly, Regent, Peggy Stewart Tea Party Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Annapolis; Foster C. Nix, biographer of Andrew Hamilton, West Chester, Pennsylvania; C. Frank Poole, Records Officer, City of Baltimore; Ernst Posner, Director, Study of State Archival Programs, The Society of American Archivists, Washington, D.C.; Marshall W. Raffel, Maryland State Planning Commission, Baltimore; Richard H. Randall, Jr., Curator, Boston Museum of Fine Arts; Roger Redden, Attorney, Baltimore; John Beverly Riggs, Eleutherian Mills Historical Library, Wilmington, Delaware; Milton Rubincam, American Society of Genealogists, Washington, D.C.; John W. Sause, Assistant Attorney General of Maryland and Historian of Kent Island, Centreville; Joseph H. Smith, Professor of Law, Columbia University, New York; S. Wilson Smith, Professor of History, the Johns Hopkins University; Jean Stephenson, Director, Genealogical Institute of the American University, Washington, D.C.; Captain Donald Stewart, commanding officer of the USS Constellation; Neil Strawser, C.B.S.-T.V. Reporter and Biographer of Samuel Chase; Marion Warren, Historical Photographer, Annapolis; Reverend Arbie D. Webb, Baltimore; Peter Welsh, Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D.C.; Constance Werner, Researcher for Historic Annapolis; Mrs. J. M. P. Wright, President, Historic Annapolis, Inc.; W. Irwin Young, Chief, Bureau of Revenue Estimates, State Comptroller's Office, Annapolis.