

The Archivist also served as Chairman of the Waldo Gifford Leland Award Committee, but since a publication of the Hall of Records was in contention, he did not participate in the voting. He continued to serve ex officio as a member of the Committee for Professional Standards and Training, and as a member of the Advisory Board of the American Archivist, the quarterly publication of the Society of American Archivists.

Duties of the New York World's Fair Commission remained nominal. The Archivist's work as a member of the Historic Annapolis Indexing Project was quite time consuming—and fruitful. Graduate students from the University of Maryland, The Johns Hopkins University, and Goucher College, participated in this work which the State subsidized to the amount of $5,000. Dr. Radoff continued to be deeply interested in the Maryland Historical Society's Historical Seminar, of which the Chairman is Dr. Kent Roberts Greenfield.

Mr. Skordas continued as a member of the Council of the Society of American Archivists and he also served as a member of the Program Committee for the annual meeting held at Raleigh. Mr. Beach was once again a member of the Records Management Committee, and Mr. White was continued as a member of the State Coordination Curriculum Committee of the State Department of Education.

Dr. Radoff attended a meeting of the Maryland Historical Trust at "Langshaw" Wye Mill, Talbot County, on July 11, 1963. He attended subsequent meetings on October 24, 1963, at Salisbury, on February 27, 1964, at Annapolis, and on May 6th, of the same year, at Frederick.

Mr. Skordas, Mr. Beach and Dr. Radoff attended the annual meeting of the Society of American Archivists in Raleigh, N. C. Mr. Skordas, as a member of the Council, attended a joint meeting of the Society of American Archivists and the Mississippi Valley Historical Association in Cleveland. He also attended the joint meeting of the Society of American Archivists and the American Historical Association at Philadelphia, primarily for the Council Meeting of the S.A.A.

Mr. Beach and Mr. Straubinger attended the annual meeting of the Registers of Wills Association in Ocean City, and Dr. Radoff, Mr. Skordas and Mr. Straubinger were in attendance at the Clerks of Court Association Meeting, also held in Ocean City.

Mr. Brown and Mr. Beach attended the annual meeting of the National Microfilm Association in Philadelphia.
