A third Bill (House Bill 8) was suggested by the President of the Senate, the Honorable William S. James of Harford County, and introduced by the Speaker of the House of Delegates, the Honorable Marvin Mandel of Baltimore City. It provided for a History and Directory of the Maryland Legislature from the beginning to the present. It was proposed that the Hall of Records do this history in collaboration with the History Department of the University of Maryland. We had a hearing before the Legislative Council at which Professor Aubrey C. Land of the University and I appeared, and the bill passed both Houses without opposition. However, it was one of the bills which was vetoed by the Governor, the Bill and the Veto message follow:
