RECORDS MANAGEMENT DIVISION

Annual Report, F. Y. 1967

Fiscal year 1967 proved to be a very busy one for the Records Management Division. Old programs were continued, new projects were undertaken, and the Division was assigned additional responsibilities as a result of the transfer of the functions of the Land Office to the Hall of Records. Since the old programs have been described in detail in previous Reports, this one will be limited to the new projects and responsibilities of the Division.

In addition to the microfilming done in our two Record Centers on a continuing basis for State agencies, this year we began a new
