

torical Trust, which usually met in Annapolis. He also attended the Maryland Historical Society Publications Committee meetings, of which he is a member, and the Library Association Reprint Committee. He was also a member of the Maryland Educational-Cultural Broadcasting Commission, which met regularly until its work was done. He is also a member of the Baltimore Bibliophiles. The Manuscript Society of America met in Baltimore in September 1967, and they visited Annapolis on September 15th, where they were addressed by the Archivist on the work of the Hall of Records. The Archivist also attended the Maryland Court Clerks' Association Meeting in Ocean City, where he was accompanied by Mr. Skordas and Mr. Beach. He attended the Society of American Archivists Annual Meeting in Santa Fe, New Mexico in October 1967, and he was accompanied there too by Mr. Beach and Mr. Skordas. He was invited to take part in the meeting of the Joint Committee on Bibliographical Service to History, which was held at Belmont, May 3, 4 and 5, 1967, and thereafter at a Conference on Quantitative Data on Early American History which was held at Williamsburg, November 3-6, 1967. The Archivist also took part in the selection of the Historic Annapolis Indexing Project workers.

Mr. Skordas continued to serve as a member of the ad hoc committee of the Society of American Archivists on Uniform Archival Statistics.

Mr. Beach and Mr. Brown attended the annual convention of the National Microfilm Association in Chicago, May 20-23, 1968 and Mr. Brown also attended the annual meeting of the Maryland County Commissioners Association held the same year in Ocean City, and Mr. Straubinger attended the annual meeting of the Register of Wills Association in Ocean City, July 6-8, 1967.

Mr. White was present at the meeting of the State Department of Education Committee on the Constitutional Convention. He also spoke to the Social Studies teachers at the Annapolis Junior High School on the use of the MARYLAND MANUAL as a supplementary textbook and then attended the annual meeting of the State Curriculum Coordinating Committee of the State Department of Education in Baltimore on December 7, 1967.

Mrs. Jacobsen represented the Hall of Records at the annual meeting of the County Historical Societies of Maryland, held at the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore.