

ists in Ottawa, Canada on October 1 and 2; the dedication ceremony of the Catonsville Community College on October 13th; the Maryland Clerks of Court Annual Meeting at Ocean City on August 8.

The Assistant Archivist attended the Clerks' Meeting and the meeting of the SAA at Ottawa. He also did the teaching at the Eighteenth Institute of Genealogical Research and Introduction of Modern Archives Administration, both of which the Hall of Records has shared in since their inception by the American University and the National Archives.

The Assistant Records Administrator attended the meeting of the Court Clerks Association. He also attended the seminar conducted by the Alpine Corporation dealing with the preparation of requests for the retrieval of information from the Maryland Code, which is now stored on computer by this corporation. Connis Brown of the Records Management staff, attended the annual meeting of the Registers of Wills, as well as the Clerks of Court Associations. He was also granted the degree of Master of Public Administration by the American University.

The Archivist was given a Certificate of Distinguished Citizenship by Governor Mandel on the occasion of his completion of thirty years as Archivist of Maryland.

VISITORS

Among the distinguished visitors at the Hall of Records during the fiscal year were:

Dr. Miguel Alves de Lima, Superintendent-Director, Brazilian Institute of Geography; Dr. William Calderhead, Historian, U. S. Naval Academy; Dr. Lois G. Carr, Historian, St. Mary's City Commission; Richard Cooper, Commissioner of the Maryland Geological Survey; Dr. Manuel Cordozo, Head, History Department, Catholic University; F. J. Dallett, American Museum, Bath, England; Wallace Duszynski, graduate student, Catholic University; Dr. L. D. Edmonson, Valley Forge, Pa.; William P. Filby, Librarian, Maryland Historical Society; Jean Forbush, Researcher, Maryland Historical Trust; Mrs. Howard Keith, President, Historic Annapolis, Inc.; Mrs. T. E. Heinton, Prince George's County Historian; Bryce D. Jacobsen, Researcher,