

CHAP. 109

CHAPTER 109.

Passed March 4,
1828

An act for changing part of the divisional line between Dorchester and Caroline counties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of Nathan Corkran, of Dorchester county, that he is possessed of a tract of land lying and being in Dorchester and Caroline counties, through which the road forming the divisional line of Dorchester and Caroline counties now runs, to the injury of the said Nathan Corkran; And whereas it appears that changing the said road will be beneficial to the said Nathan Corkran, and promote the convenience of the public. Therefore,

Commissioners to locate the road—return plat, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jacob Charles, Mark Noble and James Brown be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they or a majority of them, are hereby authorised to change and alter so much of the public road which now divides the counties of Dorchester and Caroline as passes through the land of the said Nathan Corkran, in the most convenient manner, and in such direction as shall best promote the convenience of the public, as well as the convenience of the said Nathan Corkran; and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners, or a majority of them, to cause so much of the old road and divisional line aforesaid, as may be necessary, to be laid down by a surveyor, and also such alteration as they, or a majority of them, may make in said land, shewing in what manner the alteration is made, and to return a plot thereof, with the surveyor's certificate thereon, to the levy courts of Dorchester and Caroline counties; and if the levy courts aforesaid shall approve of the alteration made and certified as aforesaid, the same shall be recorded by the clerks of the respective county courts of Dorchester and Caroline, and thenceforward, the said new road shall be held and considered as a part of the public road and divisional line between the said counties of Dorchester and Caroline, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner as the said public road and divisional line has been and is now kept in repair.

N. Corkran to pay expenses.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all the expense which shall accrue in making the alteration of the road as aforesaid, and recording the same, shall be paid by the said Nathan Corkran.
