

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That if any of the persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be desirous of pursuing the business of an auctioneer of furniture, and wearing apparel, lands, lots of ground and tenements, servants and slaves, carriages and horses, books, stationary, maps and prints, he shall be authorised so to do by day light only, upon his first entering into like recognizance as is before provided in other cases, and in like manner with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, and upon his also first paying to the treasurer of the Western shore, the sum of three hundred dollars as a license fee; and that if any of the said persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall be desirous of pursuing the business of an auctioneer for the sole purpose of vending horses and carriages, he shall be authorised so to do upon his first entering into a like recognizance, as is before provided in other cases and in like manner, in the sum of one thousand dollars; and upon his also first paying to the said treasurer of the Western Shore the sum of fifty dollars, as a license fee.

Auctioneer of furniture, wearing apparel, lands, slaves, &c.—recognizance—$5000 for license.

Horses and carriages.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That it shall be, and is hereby made the duty of the said treasurer of the Western Shore, upon his being satisfied that the recognizance required by this act, has been entered into by any of the persons appointed auctioneers by the Governor and Council, and upon his receiving the license fee required by this act from such person, to issue a general or special license to such person, as such license fee may entitle such person to receive under this act, to act as a general or special auctioneer, as the case may be, for the term of one year from the date of his said appointment.

Treasurer to issue licenses for 1 year

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That every auctioneer duly appointed and authorised by virtue of this act, in and for the city of Baltimore, who shall sell any goods, wares, merchandizes or effects, liable to duty under this act as aforesaid, at public auction or vendue, shall within twenty days after the first days of January and July, of the year for which he shall have been appointed, render to one of the judges of the city court a true and particular account in writing, of the monies or sums for which any goods, wares, merchandizes or effects, shall have been sold at every sale at auction, by him made from the time of his entering into the recognizance aforesaid, or the time that the last account was rendered by him, in conformity to this act, of the amount of each days sale, and the days when the same were respectively sold, distinguishing the sales made by himself personally, or in his presence, and those made by his partner or partners, or clerks, in consequence of his absence, setting forth also the amount of sales of all goods, wares, merchandizes and effects as aforesaid sent, or entrusted to him, his partner or partners for sale, and by him or them sold at auction, and the days on which the same were sold, and particularising the amounts of the several duties chargeable on the said sales at auction, and shall thereupon take before the said judge, the following oath or affirmation, as the case may require. I——— do solemnly and sincerely

Auctioneer to account half yearly.

Oath. 6