

CHAP. 20.

CHAPTER 20.

Passed January 25,
1828.

A supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the establishment of Vestries for each Parish in this State.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, experience has shewn that associated Rectorships, as provided for by the sixteenth section of the act to which this is a supplement, are not in all cases expedient.

Permission granted

Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the vestry of any parish or church or united churches or congregations within this state, where the ministrations of two or more clergymen may be deemed necessary or convenient, to elect and call such clergymen or any of them, either as rector, associate minister, or assistant minister, or by such other appellation as said vestry may think advisable, and designate the powers and duties to be exercised and discharged by such clergymen or any of them.

CHAPTER 21.

Passed January 29,
1828.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the opening of Monument Street in the City of Baltimore.

Commissioners appointed and empowered.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry Thompson, George Decker, Russiter Scott, William Frick and John B. Morris, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners in lieu of the persons named in the act to which this is a supplement, and they or a majority of them are hereby authorised to exercise all the powers, and perform all the duties which the commissioners named in the said act, were thereby authorised and required to do, and each of the said commissioners may at any time within sixty days, after the passage of this act, take the oath or affirmation, required by the seventh section of the act to which this is a supplement, and the said commissioners shall have power to employ a clerk, surveyor and such other agents and servants as they may deem necessary in the exercise of their powers and performance of their duties aforesaid, and allow them such compensation as the commissioners shall deem reasonable, and assess the same as part of the expenses of opening the said street.

Appeal provided for.

SEC. 2 And be it enacted, That any person or persons, or corporation, who may be dissatisfied with the assessment of damages or benefits which shall be made by the said commissioners, may within thirty days after the first publication of the notice required to be given by the fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement, appeal therefrom, by petition in writing to the Judges of Baltimore city court, praying the said Judges to review the same, and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to make it a part of their said notice, that the parties interested are entitled to such appeal, and on
