

military duties, except in the case of an actual invasion of the state, and when generally military law is declared.

CHAP. 119.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the yearly value of the messuages, houses, lands, tenements, rents, annuities or other hereditaments and real estate of the said college and corporation, exclusive of the buildings and lot, shall not exceed ten thousand dollars, current money, to be reckoned in silver milled dollars of the United States at the present rate and weight, and all gifts to the said college and corporation, after the yearly value of their estates shall amount to ten thousand dollars as aforesaid, and all bargains and purchases to be made by the same corporation, which may increase the yearly value of said estate above or beyond the sum aforesaid, shall be absolutely void and of non effect.

Income limited to $10,000

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors shall meet at least twice in every year, in stated half yearly meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as by their said ordinances they may direct, in order to examine the progress of the students and scholars in literature, to hear and determine on all complaints and appeals, and upon all matters touching the discipline of the seminary and the good and wholesome execution of their ordinances, in all which examinations, meetings and determinations such number of the said trustees duly met, (provided they be not less than than five) shall be a quorum.

Meeting of trustees

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That a majority of said trustees for the time being, when duly assembled at any half yearly or other meeting, upon due notice given to the whole body, shall have full power and authority to make fundamental ordinances for the government of the said college and the instruction of youth as aforesaid, and by these ordinances to appoint such a number of their own body, not less than five, as they may think proper, to be a quorum for transacting all general and necessary business of the said seminary, and making temporary rules for the government of the same, and also by the same fundamental ordinances to delegate to the principal, vice-principal and professors such powers and authorities as they may think best for the standing government of the said seminary, and of the execution of the ordinances and rules of the same: Provided always, That they be not repugnant to the form of government or any laws of this state.

Rules and regulations

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors shall have full power and authority to have, make and use one common and public seal, and likewise one privy seal, with such devises and inscriptions as they shall think proper, and to ascertain, fix and regulate the uses of both seals by their own laws, and the same seals or either of them to change, break, alter and renew at their pleasure.

Seals granted

SEC. 12. And for animating and encouraging the students of the said college to a laudable diligence, industry and progress in useful literature and science: Be it enacted, That the said trustees and their successors shall, by a written mandate under their privy seal and the hand of some of the trustees

Public commencesments

Grant diplomas