

CHAPTER 128.

CHAP. 128:

An act for the relief of Levin Tyler, guardian of Samuel C. Broughton, Patty Ann Broughton and Rebecca Broughton, infant children of a certain Ann Broughton, late of Somerset county, deceased.

Passed March 7,
1828.

WHEREAS it is represented by Levin Tyler, guardian of Samuel C. Broughton, Patty Ann Broughton and Rebecca Broughton, infant children of a certain Ann Broughton, that said Ann Broughton, the mother of said infants, devised certain valuable real estate in Somerset county, in unequal portions, to said infants, and died without leaving personal estate sufficient to pay her debts; and that the deficiency of the said personal estate is far less than the value of the said lands, and unless the balance due by their mother's real estate be paid by the said children, these lands will be sold to pay said debts. And the said guardian further represents, that he has monies of said infants in his hands as their guardian, sufficient to pay off the incumbrance of said land, and that he is of opinion that it would be advantageous to said infants so to apply it: Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Levin Tyler, guardian of Samuel C. Broughton, Patty Ann Broughton and Rebecca Broughton, infant children and devisees of Ann Broughton, be, and he is hereby authorised to pay out of the monies of said infants, such balance or sums due by their mother's real estate, on account of and by reason of the deficiency of her personal estate.

Guardian authorised to pay.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the orphans' court of Somerset county be authorised to appoint three judicious persons to value the respective distinct interests of said infants in the said lands, and report the same to the said orphans' court; and the said guardian shall, out of the monies of said children respectively, pay each of said children's respective portion of said balance, according to such valuation, and for such payment shall be allowed in his guardian's account with the respective children: Provided, That this act be of no effect unless the orphan's court of Somerset county shall deem the application and payment herein mentioned advantageous to said infants, and pass an order for such application and payment, which order the said court is hereby empowered to make, if they deem such order proper.

Valuation and distribution.
