

CHAP. 25.

Other districts remain unchanged.

Levy Court to appoint judges of elections.

General laws recognized

Laws incompatible with this repealed

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this act shall be construed or taken, to authorise the said commissioners to alter or change the limits or boundaries of the districts in said county, heretofore numbered, one, two, and four, or to change the place of holding the elections in said districts.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the levy court of Queen-Anne's county, shall appoint three persons in each election district in said county, residents therein, who, or such of them as shall attend, shall be the judge or judges of the election, for the districts for which he or they shall be appointed as aforesaid; and the judges so appointed, shall have, hold and exercise the same powers and authority, and shall be subject to the same penalties as the judges of the elections in this state now are.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all laws now in force, in regard to the time, manner and mode of conducting and regulating elections in the several counties of this state, shall be, and they are hereby declared to be in full force in Queen-Anne's county.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That such provisions of any former law or laws, as are inconsistent with, or repugnant to this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 26.

A supplement to the act, entitled, "An act for the opening of Ensor street in the city of Baltimore."

Passed January 29, 1828.

Commissioners appointed and empowered.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry Thompson, George Decker, John Ogston, William Frick, and John B. Morris, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, in lieu of the persons named in the act to which this is a supplement; and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties which the commissioners named in the said act were thereby authorised and required to do, and each of the said commissioners may at any time within sixty days after the passage of this act, take the oath or affirmation required by the seventh section of the act to which this is a supplement, and the said commissioners shall have power to employ a clerk, surveyor, and such other agents and servants as they may deem necessary in the exercise of their powers and performance of their duties aforesaid, and allow them such compensation as the commissioners shall deem reasonable, and assess the same as part of the expenses of opening the said street.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person or persons, or corporation, who may be dissatisfied with the assessment of damages or benefits which shall be made by the said commissioners, may within thirty days after the first publication of Appeals provided for.