

CHAP. 153

CHAPTER 153.

Passed March 8,
1828

A supplement to an act, entitled, an act to promote education in Frederick, passed at the present session.

Sixth substituted for fifth

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the word fifth, in the second line of the eighth section of the law to which this is a supplement, be, and the same is hereby stricken out, and the said law shall be construed to take effect and operate as if the word sixth had been inserted originally in its stead.

Ascertain and pay
charge of St. J. B School.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the superintendants of free schools in Frederick shall have power to determine what charge, if any, should be made by the teachers of St. Johns Benevolent school for the education of, or furnishing stationary for the pupils therein, and pay the same from the free school fund under their control, as is directed in reference to other free schools of Frederick in the original law to which this is a supplement.

Levy court requirto pay over.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That until the corporate authorities of Frederick shall levy the necessary taxes, and carry into effect the original law to which this is a supplement, the levy court of Frederic county be, and they are hereby required to pay over to the president and directors of the Frederick free school and to the pastor of St. Johns church, in Fredericktown, for the use of St. Johns benevolent school, the amount of the Frederick county school fund directed to be paid for the use of said schools respectively, by an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter seventy-two.

CHAPTER 154.

Passed March 10, 1828.

An act to authorise the treasurer of the Western Shore to borrow a sum of money for the improvement of the Penitentiary.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by an act passed at the present session of the General Assembly, entitled a further additional supplement to an act concerning crimes and punishments, the directors of the penitentiary are authorised and empowered to purchase as much ground adjacent thereto as may be necessary to enlarge the present yard thereof; and whereas, it is intended to relieve the state from any farther expense on account of the penitentiary, by requiring the directors to defray the same out of the nett profits of the institution; and whereas it is possible there may be a deficiency in the funds of the penitentiary to meet those objects: Therefore,

Additional loan of $8000 authorised

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the treasurer of the Western Shore be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to borrow, on the credit of the state, a sum of money not exceeding eight thousand dollars, on the same terms, and under the same restrictions and limitations as are prescribed by the fourth section of an act,