

and an indictment according to the form here given, shall be deemed good and sufficient in law. CHAP. 160

SEC. 11. And be enacted, That the matters and facts necessary to constitute an offence under the second section of this act, may be given in evidence either under an indictment, framed according to the principles of the common law, or under an indictment which shall set forth, that —, a person not authorised to sell lottery tickets within this state, did on the — day of —, expose and set up to public view, in — county, (or — city, as the case may be) a sign board, card, notice or device, whereby the people of this state, or some of them, were informed or induced to believe, that some person not licensed to sell lottery tickets in this state, is a dealer in lottery tickets within this state; which indictment, according to the form herein given, shall be deemed good and sufficient in law. —under 2d section

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the matters and facts necessary to constitute an offence under the third section of this act, may be given in evidence either under an indictment, framed according to the principles of the common law, or under an indictment which shall set forth, that — did advertise in the —, a newspaper printed in this state, bearing date the — day of —, some matter, card or notice, whereby the readers of such newspaper might be informed that interest in, or knowledge of some lottery not authorised by the laws of this state, might be had and obtained in this state; which indictment, according to the form here given, shall be deemed goods and sufficient in law. —under 3d section

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the matters and facts necessary to constitute an offence under the fourth section of this law, may be given in evidence as aforesaid, or under an indictment which shall set forth, that — did expose or set up to public view, a sign board, card, notice or device, in — county, (or in — city, as the case may be,) whereby the people of this state, or some of them, might be informed or induced to believe, that interests in, or knowledge of some lottery not authorised by the laws of this state, might be had and obtained within this state; which indictment, according to the form here given, shall be deemed good and sufficient in law. —under 4th section

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of Baltimore city court, and the clerks of the several county courts in this state, the former four times a year, and the latter once a year, to publish in some convenient newspaper, the names of all persons authorised to sell lottery tickets, who have taken out licenses therefor. Clerks of courts to advertise

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That whenever any person or persons shall be found guilty of a violation of any of the provisions of this act, or of any other of the laws relating to lotteries, or to the sale of lottery tickets in this state, a certificate setting forth the fact shall be published at the expense of the state, in at least two newspapers in the city of Baltimore, one at Annapolis, one at Easton, one at Frederick, and one at Hagerstown, by the clerk of the court in which such person or persons shall be convicted. —advertise certificates of condemnation for violating lottery laws