

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That any and every expense which has accrued or been occasioned, or may hereafter accrue or be occasioned in the administration of justice in the orphans' court of Baltimore county, and which was heretofore a joint charge upon the city and county of Baltimore, shall hereafter be ascertained and certified by the said court, to the commissioners of Baltimore county, and to the mayor and city council of Baltimore, in such manner, that the proportions properly chargeable to the said county and city respectively, having regard to the quantity of business transacted therein for the said county and city, shall appear, and which shall be borne and paid accordingly.

CHAP. 167

—Of orphans court

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That any and every expense which has accrued or been occasioned, or may hereafter accrue or be occasioned, for the maintenance of prisoners in and about the jail of Baltimore county, for compensation to the warden, his assistants, and others necessarily employed for the care and custody of prisoners, and all incidental expenses lawfully incurred by the visitors and governors of the said jail, shall hereafter be ascertained and certified by the said visitors and governors to the commissioners of Baltimore county, and to the mayor and city council of Baltimore, in such manner that the proportions properly chargeable to the said county and city respectively, having regard to the number of persons, and the expense of keeping the same, which shall have been sent from the county and city shall appear, and which shall be borne and paid accordingly; but the repairs to the jail shall be paid in equal proportions by the city and county respectively.

—Of Jail

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That until otherwise provided by law, the keeper of the court house and lot, shall be appointed by the commissioners of Baltimore county, and his compensation be established by them; and any regulations required for the preservation of the court house, and premises, or of the police thereof, shall be prescribed by the said commissioners; and the allowances to the said keeper, and the repairs of the court house and premises, shall be paid and borne in equal proportions by the city and county respectively.

Keeper of court house

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the bond of the treasurer of Baltimore county, required of him by the act to which this is a supplement, shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of Baltimore county court; and all bonds of collectors and constables, required by the commissioners of Baltimore county to be entered into, shall be recorded, in books to be provided for that purpose, in the office of said commissioners; for the recording of which bonds the clerk to the said commissioners shall be paid the fees heretofore chargeable by the clerk of Baltimore county court for like services, and attested copies of all the aforesaid bonds, under seal, shall be as good evidence in law for all purposes in courts or elsewhere, as if the original bonds were actually produced and proved.

Bond of county treasurer.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk to the commissioners of Baltimore county to furnish,

Clerk of commissioners copies fees