

CHAP. 26.

Approval.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That this supplement, as well as the original act, shall not have any force or validity until approved by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore.

CHAPTER 27.

Passed January 30,
1828.

Livy of $75.

An act for the relief of Francina Matthews, of Cecil county.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the judges of the levy court of Cecil county, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered at their next annual meeting, and so long as they shall see cause to do so, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, a sum of money not exceeding seventy-five dollars, for the use and support of Francina Matthews, of said county, so long as she remains in the Baltimore Hospital.

CHAPTER 28.

Passed January 30,
1828.Act of 1811, Chap.
153, revived.Election of Commissioners.

Meeting—bailiff.

Powers granted.

An act to revive an act, passed at November Session, 1811, chapter 153, and to repeal an act, passed at December session, 1826, chapter 144, concerning the town of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester counties.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the provisions of an act, passed at November session, 1811, chapter 153, be and the same are hereby revived, re-enacted and declared to be in full force, excepting such parts thereof as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the election of commissioners for the said town, shall be on some day before the last day of May next, after five days public notice thereof and of the place of holding said election, shall have been given, by advertisements set up at the taverns in said town, signed by some justice of the peace of either of the said counties; and the annual election thereafter shall be on some day to be appointed by the commissioners, of which ten days notice shall be given.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall meet as soon after their election as convenient, and may appoint a bailiff for the said town, and a clerk to record their proceedings, whom they shall have power to remove, from time to time, as they may see proper.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall have power and authority to make, constitute and ordain such bye-laws, rules, regulations, and ordinances, for the improvements of the said town, as they may deem most conducive and beneficial to its best interests and amelioration; and the same to repeal, alter and amend, whenever, and as often as such repeal, alteration or amendment, in their judgment shall