CHAPTER 176.

An act for the benefit of Sally Elzey and William Long, of Somerset County.

Passed March 12<sup>5</sup>
1828

WHEREAS, it is represented that by Whitley Fountain, the guardian and uncle of Sally Elzey and William Long, that the parents of said minors removed from this state to the state of Kentucky, carrying out with them certain negroes, and that said parents both died in Kentucky, leaving said minors orphans', and without kindred and protectors in that state, and that he the said Whitley Fountain brought said minors back into Somerset county, in Maryland, with the following negroes of the said minors, viz: Flora, Meda, Isaac, Priscilla, Saul, and entered the said negroes on the records of Somerset county according to law, and understanding doubts are entertained whether it would be lawful to hire out said slaves till the lapse of three years after they were brought back into this state: Therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the hiring of said slaves in this state shall be lawful, and shall not entitle to freedom any of the slaves of said minors.

Permission to hire
