

January, eighteen hundred and thirty, if the judgments against them hereinbefore mentioned shall not be satisfied at that time. CHAP. 190

CHAPTER 191.

A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to alter and amend the charter of the city of Annapolis. Passed March 14, 1828.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of the mayor, recorder, aldermen and common council of the city of Annapolis, that they have heretofore exercised the power to regulate and license carriages of pleasure and burthen belonging to, and owned by the residents of the said city, and doubts have arisen as to the extent of said power—Therefore, Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the mayor, recorder, aldermen and common council of the city of Annapolis, shall have full power and authority to regulate and license all carriages of pleasure and burthen belonging to, and used by the residents of the said city. Authority to regulate carriages.

CHAPTER 192.

An act to authorise and empower Richard Ireland Jones, of the city of Annapolis, to remove certain negroes from the state of Kentucky into this state. Passed March 14, 1828

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Richard Ireland Jones, of the city of Annapolis, be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to import and bring into this state, from the state of Kentucky, the following named slaves, to wit: one negro man named Charles, one negro woman named Jenny, one boy named Charles, one girl named Rhoda, one boy named Nat, one other boy named Ben, and one woman named Judy, and to have and to hold the said negroes in the same right and manner as if they had been born in this state, and had never been removed therefrom, any law to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, a list of said slaves be rendered in the manner directed by the act of seventeen hundred and ninety six, chapter sixty seven: And provided also, That nothing contained in this act shall authorise the said Richard Ireland Jones, to make sale of any of the said slaves until they shall have resided in this state for the term of three years. Importation authorised.
Proviso.