 No. 83.

Passed March 15, 1828
Resolutions with their preamble respectful to the memory of the late Colonel John Eager Howard.

Preamble.
 WHEREAS, the past year has numbered among the illustrious dead Colonel John Eager Howard, a native of Maryland, one of the most distinguished officers of the war of the revolution, formerly chief magistrate of this state, afterwards our senator in congress, and at all times one of the most honorable and virtuous of our citizens; and whereas, public opinion, which delighted to honor this good man whilst living, requires that proper respect and veneration for his memory should be recorded in our legislative proceedings—Therefore,

Expression of regret
Resolved unanimously, That the General Assembly of Maryland deeply regret as a public loss the death of Colonel John Eager Howard, whose courage and conduct raised the Maryland line to that high character which our troops acquir-
