

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

BALTIMORE, MAY OR & CITY COUN-CIL OF

school fund as the city is or may be entitled to,

Ch. Sec.

183 2

Authorised to tax all such matters, things and objects as are not now exempt from taxation by any law of this state, and to provide for the collecting and appropriating the same for the necessary expenses of the city,

— 5

Authorised to apply the income or proceeds of sale of property now vested in them for the purpose of a house of industry, to the erection and support of public schools,

— 6

Authorised to pave streets, &c. for removing nuisances, &c.

— 7

Authorised to abate or remove nuisances from lots, &c. and recover the expense, &c.

— 8

Consent of, required to authorise the rail road to pass through any streets, lanes or alleys of the city, &c.

209 1

See chapter 21, section 9, &c.

Their approbation requisite to opening Monument street,

21

Same respecting Ensor street,

26

Same in regard to opening an alley,

58

Same of Pine street,

95 9

Same in relation to Orleans street,

123 1

Same in relation to Orange alley,

124

Same in regard to closing a street upon the margin of Jones' Falls,

180

Power of the commissioners of tax, conferred upon,

80

Books and papers of said commissioners, to be delivered to, &c.

—

Authorised to levy for joint expenses of Baltimore county, for 1827.

— 4

Empowered to open and extend Lombard street,

93 1

To sell Frenchman's or Uhler's alley, &c.

— 2

To designate the place, time, manner, &c. of selling horses and carriages at auction, &c.

111 11

Entitled to receive and apply 20,000 dollars annually towards deepening the harbor.

— 22

Required to report annually to the legislature thereon,

— 22

Required to account to treasurer of Western Shore, for tax upon certain sales made at auction,

— 24

Corporate right reserved as to licenses,

119 8