

CHAPTER 62.

CHAP. 62.

An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act concerning Crimes and Punishments, passed at November session, one thousand eight hundred and nine.

Passed January 26
1828.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person who may pass within this state any forged or counterfeited note or notes, knowing them to be such, purporting to be the genuine note or notes of a bank which has been, or may be regularly constituted by this state, or any of the United States, or by the United States, shall be deemed a felon, and shall, on being duly convicted thereof, be sentenced to undergo confinement in the Penitentiary for a period not less than five, nor more than ten years, to be treated as directed by the act to which this is a supplement.

Penalty for passing forged notes.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if any person shall be convicted a second time of the aforesaid crime, such person shall be sentenced to undergo confinement in the Penitentiary for a period not less than ten, nor more than twenty years.

For second offence

CHAPTER 63.

An act for the benefit of William W. Whittington, Charlotte Whittington, John R. Whittington and Robert H. Whittington, the infant children and heirs at law and representatives of William Whittington, late of Worcester county, deceased.

Passed January
1828.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly by the petition of the administrator of the said William Whittington, and the guardian in fact of Charlotte Whittington, a child, heir at law and representative of the said William Whittington, that the said William Whittington died intestate; that his personal estate was insufficient for the payment of his debts: that a decree was passed on the chancery side of Worcester county court, whereby the said administrator was appointed trustee, to make sale of as much of the real estate whereof the said William Whittington, died seized, as would be sufficient to discharge the balance of his debts, after the exhaustion of his personal estate for that purpose; that a valuable portion of the said real estate has not yet been sold by the said trustee, and that the whole amount of the real and personal assets of the said William Whittington, which have come to the hands of his said administrator and trustee, is insufficient for the payment of his debts: And whereas it is also represented to this general assembly, that the said William W. Whittington, Charlotte Whittington, John R. Whittington and Robert H. Whittington, are seized of certain real estate, which descended to them from their mother, and are seized and possessed of certain real and personal estate, which they Preamble.