

JOSEPH KENT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

1827

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That each of the said commissioners shall be entitled to receive two dollars per day, for every day he shall necessarily attend to the duties of his office.

CHAP. 81.

Compensation of commissioners.

Acts inconsistent with this repealed.

Levy at any time of year.

Suits unaffected.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That so much of any acts of Assembly, as may be contrary to, or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall and may at any time during each and every year, make complete and close their levy, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. And that all suits at law or in equity which may be pending at the passage of this act, by or against the justices of the levy court of said county, shall be carried on in like manner, and have the same legal effect, either in favor of or against the commissioners provided for by this act, as if such suit or suits had been instituted by or against the said commissioners.

CHAPTER 82.

An act to open and lay out certain streets, lanes and alleys in Westminster, Frederick County.

Passed February 26 1828.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all person or persons entitled to vote for delegates to the General Assembly of this state, and residents in the town of Westminster, in Frederick county, Maryland, shall meet at such time and place, as the judges hereinafter appointed may determine on, in said town, on the first Monday of May next, and proceed to ballot for three commissioners, for the said town, polls to be kept open for that purpose, from twelve to three o'clock of said day; and the three persons having the greatest number of votes, shall be, and they are hereby appointed Street Commissioners for the town of Westminster, in Frederick county, to hold their office for two years, or until the next election, which shall take place on the first Monday of May in every second year thereafter.

Street commissioners to be elected.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted. That the three judges appointed in the Westminster or seventh election district, for the holding of the election of delegates to the General Assembly of this state, be, and they are hereby appointed judges of said election, and shall be privileged to appoint a clerk to keep a regular record of their proceedings, and that said judges and clerk shall be entitled to receive for their services, the sum of one dollar each, to be paid as hereinafter provided.

Judges of election — their compensation.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners before they shall act as such, shall take an oath before a justice of the peace of said county, faithfully to discharge all the duties prescribed therein by this law, without favor, affection or partiality, and having thus qualified, they shall proceed to lay out and open such streets, lanes, or alleys as they may think necessary to promote the convenience of the inhabitants

Oath of office.

Lay out and open streets.