CHAP. 12.

CHAPTER 13.

An act for the further relief of Edward Alexander of Cecil County. Passed January 21, 1827.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Justices of the Levy court of Cecil county, be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, at their next annual meeting, and so long as they shall see cause to do so, to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, the sum of twenty dollars, for the use of Edward Alexander of Cecil county; in addition to the sum of twenty dollars, already allowed him by said Levy court, under the act of Assembly, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry poor persons in the several counties therein mentioned; passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty five, chapter two hundred and two. Additional levy of $20 authorised.

CHAPTER 14.

A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for building a bridge over the north west fork of the Nanticoke river, in Caroline county, at or near a place called and known by the name of the Old Bloomery, and for other purposes therein named, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-six. Passed January 21, 1827.

WHEREAS, doubts have arisen about the construction of a law, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-six, for building a bridge over the north west fork branch of the Nanticoke river, in Caroline county, at or near a place called the Old Bloomery, and for other purposes therein mentioned—Therefore, Preamble

SECTION 1, Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it may and shall be lawful for the commissioners named in the original law to which this is a supplement, or a majority of them, "if the levy court of Caroline county, or a majority of said court, shall think it advisable" to build a bridge over the said Nanticoke river, as is provided by the original law to which this is a supplement, and to open a road from the south east side of said bridge across the same, and to extend the road along the old mill dam, or below the same, until it intersects the main road leading from the said Bloomery mill to Federalburg, without being obliged to open and Authority granted
