

aforesaid, to return it to the armory, shall be considered a misdemeanor; and the person so offending shall be punished by a fine not exceeding double the value of the property thus illegally detained, to be recovered on the complaint of the Adjutant General or of the proper commanding officer as aforesaid in the same manner as is prescribed for the collection of fines in section 27 of this article, or by imprisonment in the county or city jail for not less than two weeks nor more than two months.

SEC. 30. Upon the disbandment of any company or organization which has received arms, equipments or any other property of the State for military or naval purposes, the commanding officer of such company or organization shall be responsible for the return of the same to the custody of some duly authorized officer of the State; and it shall be the duty of the Adjutant General to take the necessary legal proceedings in the name of the State, or to direct that proper legal proceedings be taken, as provided in section 29 of this Article, unless the said property is properly accounted for by said commanding officer as provided in section 42 of this Article.

Disbandment
of company.

3. SERVICE AND PAY.

SEC. 31. There shall be an encampment of the brigade in the year 1896, and in every alternate year thereafter; and there shall be an encampment of the three regiments of the brigade separately, and such of the separate organizations as the commander-in-chief may designate, except the first naval battalion, in the year 1897, and in every alternate year thereafter, such encampments to be held within the limits of the State, at such time and place and for such length of time as the commander-in-chief may determine.

Encampments.

There shall be an encampment or cruise of the first naval battalion in the year 1896, and in every year thereafter, at such time and place and for such length of time as the commander-in-chief may determine, and such encampment or cruise of said naval battalion may be held without the limits of the State, if the commander-in-chief so determines; provided, however, that no encampment or cruise shall be had in any given year if the commander-in-chief, for good and sufficient reasons, shall so order.

Cruise of first naval battalion.

SEC. 32. Whenever any of said organizations shall be ordered into camp or on a cruise as aforesaid, or whenever ordered out by the commander-in-chief, each enlisted man shall

Pay when in encampment or on cruise.