CHAPTER 94.

AN ACT to make valid the appointment of registers of voters for "Hagerstown," and to legalize the entries made, acts done and proceedings taken by them under the provisions of Chapter 27 of the Acts of Assembly of this present session (1896) of said General Assembly.

Preamble. WHEREAS, By delay in the passage of chapter 27 of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland at this its session of (1896,) providing for the appointment of registers of voters in the town of "Hagerstown," and for the registration of voters therein, it became impossible for the Governor to make the appointments upon the date in said act specified, but did appoint said registers upon a day subsequent to the date provided by this act; and

Preamble. WHEREAS, Notices of said registration, required by said chapter 27 of the acts of 1896, were given in anticipation of the passage of said act, and the appointments thereunder, by which means, the public was fully notified of the days, hours and places of registration in said town; and

Preamble. WHEREAS, The said registers, in the compliance with the provisions of said act, have proceeded to perform, and have in part performed, their duties in substance, if not in form, in conformity to the provisions of said act; and

Preamble. WHEREAS, All regularities, if any, made as aforesaid, were committed without dishonest intent and in order to facilitate the operation and carry out the intent of said Act of Assembly; therefore
