

wheel with the necessary pipes and tank, and for their convenience in taking care of them, they wish to obtain a charter and are unable to do so, under the general laws relating to corporations, because Lake View is not a city or town; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Carroll B. Blick, Frank L. Schepler, William M. Marriott, Charles C. McColgan, John A. Sheridan, Clarence B. Marriott, N. Rogers Bayly, William H. Rothrock, Samuel W. Lippincott and Telfair W. Marriott, or such of them as shall accept the benefits of this Act of Assembly, their associates and successors, be and they are hereby constituted a corporation, under the name of "The Lake View Water Works Company," with all the powers which can be acquired by any water company incorporated under Article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Corporations," except that the corporation hereby created shall have no power to condemn land or other property, but shall have power to supply water to those who own or may hereafter own or occupy parts of the tract of land, known as Lake View, in Baltimore county, conveyed by George Whitelock and Benjamin Kurtz, trustees to Telfair W. Marriott, (see deed, liber L. M. B. No. 209, folio 418, of the land records of Baltimore county,) as well as other persons.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have the right to make all by-laws, not inconsistent with law, and to provide by law or otherwise for the collection of all such rates or charges, and to enforce the payment of the same by suits therefor and by penalties and forfeitures, for the use of the water, as the directors of the corporation may deem necessary to ensure the proper care, operation, protection and repair of said works and any extension thereof within said property, and to pay a reasonable rate of interest on cost of construction and use of land.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if it is deemed expedient to have a capital stock, the said company may have a capital stock, not exceeding the amount of four thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of such par value, and be apportioned and disposed of as the directors may determine.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the affairs of the said corporation shall be managed by a board of five directors, as follows, namely: William M. Marriott, Samuel W. Lippincott, William H. Rothrock, John A. Sheridan and Telfair W. Marriott, or any of the other corporators, to manage its affairs
