

Objects of corporation.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the object and purposes of said corporation are the education of young men for the Roman Catholic priesthood, whose mission shall be among the negro race, and also for church, school, industrial and charitable work among the colored people. In order that the object of the said corporation may be attained, the trustees of said corporation are hereby authorized to use and employ its property or the income thereof, or both, in the maintenance, support and education of the young men studying for the priesthood; and also in building churches, schools, industrial and charitable institutions in and out of the State of Maryland.

Trustees.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the management of said corporation and of its business, is hereby vested in John R. Slattery, Joseph A. St. Laurent, Thomas B. Donovan, Oscar F. Lebean, Edward L. Quade, John A. De Ruyter, Lambert Welbers and Charles E. Reilly, and their successors, to be chosen as hereinbefore provided for, who shall be known as the trustees of said corporation; and the said corporation is hereby given full power to increase the number of trustees at will; that the trustees, and each of them, shall hold office for life, unless removed by a majority of their number, and in the event of the death of one, the said trustees are hereby authorized to fill by a majority vote the vacancy; but a failure to elect a trustee or trustees to fill any vacancy or vacancies occurring in their number, shall not work a forfeiture of this charter, or of the privileges hereby granted, or a dissolution of the corporation hereby created.

Officers and agents.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the said trustees of said corporation, be and they are hereby authorized to elect a president, who shall be chosen from among their number, who shall appoint such officers and agents as he may deem necessary, and the said president shall be elected by a majority vote of the said trustees, and shall hold office for life, unless removed by a majority vote of said trustees.

Right of appeal.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the General Assembly of Maryland reserves to itself the right to alter, amend or repeal this act, or any part thereof, at its pleasure.

Effective.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 27th, 1896.
